Results to 16 November

Gents

Saturday saw the Gent's Section battle not only the golf course but the weather as well, with those playing in the morning beating the heavy rain of the afternoon. Despite the exceptionally strong winds the men, playing a bogey better ball, returned some outstanding results.

Winners were Dave Pritchett and Gavin Shilham with a tremendous 7up on the course. 2nd and 3rd place was decided by count back with John Webb and John Rawlings taking 2nd place knocking Ian Plant and Adrian Webb into 3rd on count back both having returned 2 up on the course. The two's sweep was shared by only 3 players Bev Blake, Andy Finn and Geoff Townsend.

Mingles

The Monday Morning Mingles were hardy and braved the elements despite the rain and strong winds. 24 players took part less than half of the normal turnout. Winners were Pip and Peggy Coy nett 37, with Mingles organisers, Owen and Chris Cook, in 2nd place nett 37.2. Tom Eadon and Elaine Shelton came 3rd nett 37.8. The best fourball was Pip & Peggy Coy with Owen & Chris Cook nett 74.2

Ladies

The ladies played a nine hole Bogey competition last Wednesday. The winner was Jeanette Holland with a super 4 up on the course. In 2nd place was Alison Gatward 2 down on the course.
